- The theme is political parties with Obama as the centerpiece. I decided on this theme because I just like all the different types of political parties people can choose to join.

- The goal of this game is to make matches. A match is a group of three or more images next to each other horizontally or vertically.

- 1 Point is awarded per match no matter the size.

- The game is over when 100 moves have been made.

- Game works great! Happy shuffling!
