The Akastuki

Akatsuki (暁, Literally meaning: "Dawn" or "Daybreak") was a group of shinobi that existed outside the usual system of hidden villages. Over the course of several decades, Akatsuki took different forms and was led by different individuals. Though each iteration is viewed as either subversives or criminals, all seek to make the world a better place through their own means. Each Akatsuki tends to have multiple lairs across the world, inaccessible either due to their remoteness or the various security measures that protect them.

The goal of this game is to match the faces of the members of The Akatsuki in a row and/or column of three or more.

You move left, right, up, and down using the arrow keys and/or W, A, S, and D.

Points are awarded for the length of the matches (3 faces = 3 points, 4 faces = 4 points, etc.)

The game is over after you have used up all 100 moves permitted.